

Dear Ms. Smith,

Thank you once again for your interest in the PhD position in the field of laser spectroscopy at the Institute of Applied Physics. After reviewing the large number of applications submitted, we wish to inform you that you have unfortunately not been selected for the short list.

We appreciate the time and effort you have taken in applying for the position and wish you every success in your current job search and future career.

Yours sincerely,